

Notice on photography in the airport

Please comply to the following guidelines and do it safely when taking personal photos or videos here.

Prohibitions / Notes

- From the viewpoint of security, it is prohibited to take pictures at the Security Screening (including security equipment and Security Screening inspectors).
- Unauthorized photography of other passengers or airport staff is prohibited in order to protect portrait rights and privacy.
- In the aircraft or shops, please confirm the rules for photography with each operator.
- Please do not disturb other customers or shops.
- when getting on and off the plane, please be sure to follow the instructions of the staff or attendants.
- Please contact the airport management office for press coverage or commercial photography.
- Please note that we will not be held responsible for any troubles that may arise from the shooting and the publication of such images.

Notice on photography in Tokyo Heliport

Please comply to the following guidelines and do it safely when taking personal photos or videos here.

Prohibitions / Notes

- From the viewpoint of security, it is prohibited to take pictures at the Security Screening (including security equipment and Security Screening inspectors).
- Unauthorized photography of other passengers or heliport staff is prohibited in order to protect portrait rights and privacy.
- In the aircraft or hangars, please confirm the rules for photography with each operator.
- Please do not disturb other customers or business operators.
- when getting on and off the helicopter, please be sure to follow the instructions of the staff or attendants.
- Please contact Tokyo Heliport Management Office for press coverage or commercial photography.
- Please note that we will not be held responsible for any troubles that may arise from the shooting and the publication of such images.

